RANKING FRAMEWORK

2 Student Support, Services and Progression

2.12.3 Self-Employment Modules Organised No. of students Benefitted

Response: Yes

The Career Counselling & Placement Cell of the institution plays a vital role in guiding students towards suitable career opportunities and promoting employability as well as self-reliance. In alignment with the objectives of the Ranking Framework, the Cell has undertaken several initiatives focused on skill development, awareness, and self-employment. These activities are designed to equip students with practical knowledge, entrepreneurial skills, and financial awareness, thereby preparing them for diverse career pathways.

The institution has organized various self-employment-oriented activities to encourage entrepreneurial thinking and skill-based learning among students. These modules aim to provide hands-on experience and exposure to income-generating opportunities.

i. Mehandi Pratiyogita organised at GDC Kaffota to increase self-employment

A Mehandi (henna) competition was organized to promote creativity and traditional art skills among students. This activity also highlighted the potential of Mehandi designing as a source of self-employment, especially for female students. Participants showcased their artistic abilities, and the event encouraged them to consider such skills as viable entrepreneurial opportunities.
